

Set up your online fundraising project in 30 seconds

Visit the Dyer Island Conservation Trust profile on GivenGain.

Click 'Start Fundraising'.

Select your fundraising project.

Log in to GivenGain or sign-up for an activist account if you don't already have one.

When logged in, you can click on "FUNDRAISE" to also link your fundraising project to an official event on GivenGain, or skip this step if you are not fundraising as part of an event.

Official events are listed and includes marathons, cycling races etc, in which you can participate and fundraise, or a private group of people fundraising together.

Set-up your activist project. And be sure to tell everyone why you are raising funds!

Set your fundraising target & set your deadline.

All funds raised will go directly to the DICT, even if you don't reach your fundraising goal.

Get creative - Add pictures, videos and details to promote your project !

Share, Share share on social media

Check out the DICT website for social media resources you can download.
